

Your Flat Teacher

My favourite thing
about watching you grow
is hearing your stories
and the facts that you know.

But now, for a while,
we must stay far apart.
Regardless of distance,
you're still in my heart.

I think of you daily
and miss you a lot.
So, I've made you a 'me'
that's a tiny mascot!

Look at your flat teacher –
a miniature me!
I'll help with your learning
and see what you see.

I'll join you on journeys
wherever you roam
and spend some time with you when you're safe at home.

You'll bring me to lessons
when we meet online
and we'll be together
when things are just fine.
